ENTHUSIASTIC YOUNG WOMEN

of the States, to handle the campaign along the most modern and approved lines, introducing many new and original features that will be of great assistance to candidates, and enable them to secure much enjoyment as well as profit from the contest.

A Starting Opportunity. To enable candidates to start right and immediately place themselves in controlling positions, which will prove to their friends that they are in earnest in their determination to claim one of the splendid awards, a coupon is printed in this issue, which is good for 5000 extra votes if turned in with a three-month or over subscription.

Three months or over subscription by 7 o'clock on the night of Wednesday, April 24. No limit is placed upon the number of these coupons which may be turned in by a candidate, only that each must be accompanied by a subscription of three months or over.

These subscriptions may be either "NEW" or "OLD." An "OLD" subscriber is one who was taking the paper at the time the contest started, April 17. A "NEW" subscriber is one who has or will subscribe since the opening of the campaign.

This coupon will enable any candidate who is in earnest in her determination to win to secure a large number of extra votes right at the start, and by allowing her friends that she intends to win she will secure much additional assistance, as an interested person is always the best booster, and by interesting her friends she will naturally secure their support.

Some Facts About the Nominations. We have received many requests from persons who desire to know whether or not one candidate can be nominated by more than one person. As many as wish to may nominate the same candidate, but only ONE of the nomination ballots will be counted for each candidate. But if you have in mind some young woman whom you would like to see win one of these prizes, do not hesitate about nominating her, as even if her name has already been sent in, you are making some of her nomination being entered, better make sure than to let her lose out altogether. And even if someone else has sent in her name, no harm is done, as but one of the blanks will be counted, but you will have made sure that the candidate of your choice is in the race.

Anyone has the privilege of nominating a candidate, and it is not necessary to send in a subscription with a nomination, although naturally enough a subscription will do a great deal toward advancing the cause of your favorite.

Open To All. This offer of the Bulletin is open to all. There are no restrictions of any sort placed upon candidates except those of residence and respectability. To make this offer as liberal as possible, we do not even stipulate that candidates must be subscribers to the Bulletin. Candidates are not obliged to work in their own districts, but may work in any district or wherever they choose, but do not compete with other candidates for prizes except in their own district. This offer is one of the most liberal ever made to a gathering of candidates, and its magnitude is fully appreciated by the young women of the Territory, as well as their friends, who are already taking a keen interest in the campaign of various candidates.

The Magnitude of the Contest. The contest, by the distribution of such liberal coupons, becomes one of importance to every person in the Territory. Not only are the prizes on a far greater scale than has ever before been attempted by any newspaper of the Territory, but the high plane upon which it will be conducted, affording every candidate an absolutely fair and impartial opportunity to win, and the fact that the representative young women of the islands are entering, will insure its popularity with everyone. Just as soon as the standings of candidates are published, with the daily additions to their vote-totals, practically every person throughout the Territory will be searching with the greatest interest the progress of his or her favorite. This daily publication of vote-standings will enable friends of candidates to see just how the campaigns of their favorites are progressing, and enable them to keep in close touch with the work of favored candidates.

Married Women as Well as Single. Married ladies as well as single are privileged to enter the contest. No restriction as to their state in life is made. A number of nominations have already been received from married women, as well as numerous inquiries, and we will state that whether you are married or single, you are entitled to enter.

Anyone May Vote. Anyone who desires to vote may do so by clipping the coupons which appear in each issue of the Bulletin, and it is not necessary to subscribe in order to vote for your favorite. The coupons clipped from each issue of the Bulletin have a value of ten votes each and any person may fill these out and bring or send them to the Contest Department of the Bulletin. Special voting-instructions are issued on all subscription payments, according to the amount paid, and these ballots are good any time during the contest and right up to the close. But the coupons clipped from the paper are only good for ten days from date of publication and must be voted in before that time.

Persons living in one district are not confined to voting for candidates in that particular district, but may vote for candidates in any district.

Instructions for Voting. Enter the name of the young woman whom you wish to see win one of these splendid awards AT ONCE. She may win the handsome 1912 complete, top-equipped "Regal" automobile, one of the elegant $250 "Brimington" play airplanes, a perfect $100 diamond ring or one of the other prizes.

Better still, get the help to enter her own name and then vote for her. Those who get in on the start have the best chance of winning, hence it is desirable that the name of your favorite candidate be entered without delay. Candidates who enter this contest do not necessarily have to be subscribers to the Bulletin. Enter your name and your friends will do the rest. You will be surprised to see how rapidly the votes come in and what a little effort is required to win one of the rewards. Get in at the start and encourage your friends to vote for you; the rest will be easy. You will never know how popular you are until you enter this contest.

How To Win. Any young woman who desires to enter the contest and win one of the magnificent awards offered should see to it that her name is at once sent to the Contest Manager.

Candidates should at once interest their friends in the contest and be united in entering the names of as many persons as possible to come for them. Thousands of free votes are distributed daily, as each copy of the Bulletin contains a coupon good for 10 votes. By getting your friends, the majority of whom are subscribers to the Bulletin, to clip these votes for you, and then securing their subscriptions, you can add thousands to your total and immediately become a contender for these splendid prizes, all of which are worth as much effort.

The nomination blanks will only appear for a limited time, and only a limited number will be accepted. On the nomination blank from this issue and send it to the Bulletin office with your name and address or the name and address of your favorite candidate. A subscription is not necessary, but will naturally help your candidate, and a good start means much. The names of persons making nominations will not be divulged.

The prizes will be awarded at the finish of the contest, and may be disposed of as the winners see fit.

Votes Issued on All Payments. Votes are issued on all subscription payments, both old and new. Be sure you receive your votes when paying or preparing your subscriptions. Every subscription payment, even for one month, earns votes, and these may be used for any candidate or held until the close of the campaign if the subscriber chooses.

Ballot Box in Office. There will be a ballot box in the business office of the Bulletin, beginning tomorrow, where votes may be deposited for any candidate you may choose to vote for. If you cannot bring the ballots in person, send them to the Contest Manager, and the votes will be credited to the young lady of your choice. Extreme care will be taken in the counting so that every candidate may receive the full benefit of every ballot deposited in her credit.

Nomination-Blank Counts But Once. Do not overlook the fact that the nomination blank counts 2500 votes for a candidate, but only one of these blanks will be voted for a candidate. The first nomination blank received is placed to the credit of the young woman for whom it is made out. The daily coupons, however, are good for voting purposes in any amount. They must be voted, however, before the expiration date printed thereon.

Votes To Be Counted Each Day. After the first announcement of candidates, the votes will be counted each day and the result published in the paper at the following day. There will be a summary of the progress of the campaign each day from this time on, and the close of the contest, and those entered can and should make it a point to read this story daily, as
